Chamber, Historical Society

Open House is today

Today offers a great opportunity for the people of Elk Point and district to become more aware of what our community offers for tourists who visit the area. This afternoon, the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce is hosting an Open House and coffee party in the Empress Banquet Room from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m., while this evening, the Elk Point Historical Society will host an Information Evening in the Library Meeting Room from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. The general public is invited and will be heartily welcomed at both events.

The Chamber's Tourism Awareness Open House will feature showings of the Lakeland Tourist Association's new Lakeland Zone Video, and you may also pick up free copies of the new Discover Lakeland brochure, an Alberta Road Map, accommodation and campground guides, and brochures on Elk Point, Fort George-Buckingham House, and Ross Lake. The newly printed Elk Point postcards have arrived and will be for sale at the open house. Please drop in, join the Chamber for your afternoon coffee break, and become more aware about what there is to see in the Lakeland and especially in our own beautiful corner of the zone.

The Historical Society's Information Evening will be equally interesting, with displays pertaining to the Fort George-Buckingham House development and the Historical Mural Park Project. Plans for both projects will be displayed, along with artifacts from the fort sites, photos of last summer's archaeological dig, the Society's video of the Elk Point Bridge opening, and a miniature version of the mural. Tony Eng, architect for the Visitor Reception Centre at the forts, will be on hand and will speak briefly on the project at 7:30 p.m. Roger Capus of Alberta Public Works will also be present. Historical Society pins and copies of "Reflections" will be on sale. A draw will be made for a Historical Society t-shirt. Coffee and snacks will be served.

Tourism Awareness Week Proclaimed

Mayor Bruce Kleeberger signs a proclamation declaring May 13 to 19 as Tourism Awareness Week in Elk Point. The proclamation was presented by Councillor Allan Frankiw, Vice-Chairman of Elk Point's Tourism Action Committee.

Community Services Centre plans shelved

Plans for a new Community Services Centre for Elk Point were put on the shelf at Town Council's Monday meeting, when five of seven votes went against accepting an offer from the County of St. Paul to trade the 1.47 acre site for 5 acres of Town land north of the A. G. Ross Arena. The County offer included backfilling the site of the present CSC, after the Town had disposed of the present building.

The 5-acres-for-1.47-acres swap was seen as a major sacrifice to be made by the Town, in order to accommodate the needs of the senior citizens and several local organizations. It was noted that the Town's own needs, for office space, playschool and parent nursery, could be adequately filled by a much smaller and more economical structure.

Funding was a major factor in the decision. Council agreed that the Town is facing major expenditures in the near future for water, sewer and street upgrading, and must spend their resources wisely in order to provide those essential services. Council was also unsure that the Pioneer Circle would be able to raise the needed funds to obtain a matching government grant to fund a portion of the project. Council member Morris Cooper, who is the Pioneer Circle President, noted that the seniors "have had a lot of changes of opinion" since they voted to go in with the Town on the proposed building.

Monday's meeting marked the start of Tourism Awareness Week in Elk Point, and several matters on the agenda dealt with tourism related matters. Tourism Action Committee Vice-Chairman Allan Frankiw presented Mayor Bruce Kleeberger with a proclamation declaring May 13 to 19 as Tourism Awareness Week in Elk Point.

Council gave approval to a proposed 14.92 acre subdivision in the SW 1/4- 7-57-6-W4 for the Elk Point Agricultural Society. Conditions of development state that the developer must enter into a development agreement with the Town, that the Town be given cash in lieu of reserves on the parcel, and that no development take place within the westernmost 80.197 meters of the parcel in order to conform with the General Municipal Plan. The GMP calls for a strip of Highway Commercial property and a 6 metre lane to be reserved on all property developed along the highway.

The need for portable toilet facilities at the recreation land ball diamonds was expressed to Council. The Community Services Department will try to make arrangements with the Elk Point Golf and Country Club to use their washrooms until the Lions Club Concession Booth, which will have washrooms, is completed later this summer. If this is not possible, or proves too inconvenient, portable toilets can be rented.

A contract for the construction of the Picnic Shelter for the Recreation Land was signed. It was noted that the contract does not specify the June 30 deadline or mention the 10 percent holdback if the building is not completed by that time. Since this has not been included, an extension on the completion date may be required.

Councillor Allan Frankiw reported on behalf of the Fort George-Buckingham House Advisory Committee, and showed Council a sketch of the Visitor Reception Centre, which features a large gallery where the story of the fur trading days will be told. The building itself will cost in the range of $525,000, with another $280,000 for the display and $60,000 for water and sewer installation. The County of St. Paul has indicated to the Province that they are willing to cost-share the building of an access road to the site.

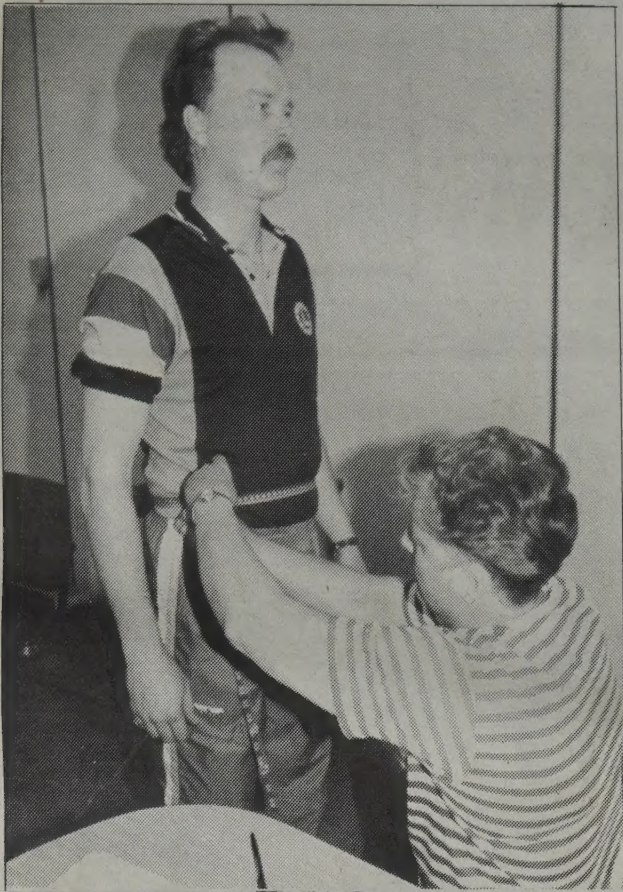

Information on alternate sites for Tennis Club courts has not been compiled as yet, but the Club has indicated they are open to suggestions.

The Town has been approached by the County of St. Paul FCSS regarding the contracting of Satellite Day Homes outside of Elk Point. The County would like to access this service, but does not wish to start a Satellite Day Home Program of their own at this time. The Community Services Board was empowered to draft an agreement to provide this service within the County. The Coordinator's salary will be reviewed by the Finance and Administration Committee if an agreement is signed, to compensate for the additional workload.

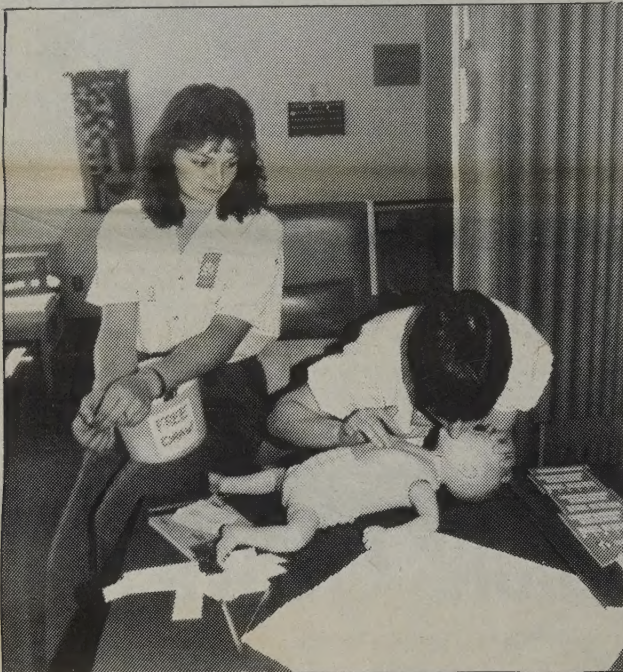

Second and third readings were given to Bylaw 509 / 90, Amending Traffic Control Bylaw 476 / 87, which provides for the installation of barriers to close off traffic on 51 Street between the schools during the afternoon dismissal period daily.

Council Lawrence Pidluzny was sworn in as Elk Point's new Deputy Mayor for the coming six months. Pidluzny succeeds Councillor Allan Frankiw in the position.

Canada health day observed

Canada Health Day was observed last Friday in Elk Point, with a good turnout both at the Registered Nursing Assistants' Blood Pressure Clinic at Elk Point Co-op and at the Bazaar, Bake Sale, Tea and Health Fair that afternoon at the Hospital.

A capacity crowd packed the Hospital lobby well in advance of the official opening time of 1:30 p.m., all eager to make their purchases from the Hospital Auxiliary's well filled bake and bazaar tables before moving on to the cafeteria for tea, coffee and goodies.

Booths ringing the Patient Lounge offered information from the hospital staff and the North East Alberta Health Unit on stress, dental health, home care, poison prevention, nursing care and skin wellness. Videos on sun safety awareness and breast self examination were shown periodically, and demonstrations were given on CPR and choking.

The NEAHU's "Heart Action Team" was busy in the Group Therapy Room, with a long line of individuals having their blood pressure taken, lens.

The events all served as a celebration of the birthday of nursing pioneer Florence Nightingale, and truly showed that her dedication to patient care and well-being is still with us today.

Wall-To-Wall Baked Goods

This groaning table of baked goods at the Hospital Auxiliary Bake Sale and Bazaar soon looked bare, as eager purchasers decided which goodies to take home with them.

Camping?

We've all done it. We're picnicking at the beach or in the woods and we carelessly leave garbage behind, sometimes just a single wrapper or soda can.

The fact is, garbage left behind can be very lethal. Many of our seemingly innocent daily habits have a devastating impact on creatures great and small in our communities.

Thousands of birds and fish choke to death or drown every year from eating or getting tangled in plastics and trash. Plastics thrown in water are often mistaken for food, as it becomes floating debris. The birds and fish choke on balloons, garbage bags, plastic foam cups, cans, bottles, food wrappings (foil or plastics). Some are strangled by plastic six-pack holders, onion sacks and fishing line that have been discarded.

Use caution with your disposal. Before throwing six-pack beer and soda holders into the garbage, cut the loops apart. You may save a life.

National Tourism Awareness Week

"Canada Grows With Tourism"

I, Dr. Bruce Kleeberger, do hereby declare May 13, to 19, 1990 National Tourism Awareness Week in Elk Point, Alberta.

I call on all residents to join their fellow Canadians to commemorate and celebrate this country's fourth annual Tourism Week. The theme will be "Canada Grows With Tourism".

I join with our local tourism-related businesses in reminding you of the economic importance of an industry which provides employment and contributes substantially to the economy. Last year, tourism offered us an opportunity to play host to over 1200 visitors, contributing to understanding and good will.

Tourism is a renewable resource that enriches our country, supporting the preservation of our historic heritage and culture, enhancing the lives of visitors and residents alike.

Tourism brings many visitors to experience our great community and its people.

Finally, and perhaps most important of all, travel has a part to play in the growth of the human soul: to educate, to entertain and to provide a much needed respite from the stresses of day to day life. I urge each and every Elk Point resident to join all of Canada in a salute to the tourism industry and a celebration of National Tourism Awareness Week.

FCSS books for school library

The F. G. Miller Junior-Senior High School Library would like to take this opportunity to thank the County of St. Paul No. 19 FCSS for supplying their library with books which will help the student body and community in preventative and support services.

Books purchased due to the FCSS generosity include both fiction and non-fiction. The books of fiction deal with teen pressures, loss of a family member, discrimination, disabilities, etc.. All these topics are put in a scenario that the junior and senior high students can relate to. An example of these books are the "Degrassi Series" books. The non-fiction books also include a wide range of topics from alcoholism, anorexia nervosa, teen pregnancy, autism, mentally disabled children, AIDS, sexual abuse and assault, suicide and much more. These books help the student learn how to deal with problems and understand them, as well as possible ways to cure or cope with these problems. All books are available on request to all members of the community (subject to school rules).

Thank you to Bridget Montgomery and Linette Newby for all your input and support. Special thanks to the County of St. Paul No. 19 FCSS for your generosity and concern for the students of our school and our community.

Pioneer Circle

Successful tea & bake sale

By Irene Magnusson

The Elk Point Seniors' Pioneer Circle held a well-attended Mother's Day Tea, on Saturday, May 12, in the hall. Some 75 to 80 persons were present, to enjoy refreshments prepared by ladies of the lunch committee, a delicious concoction of cake and ice cream and all this smothered in strawberries, topped off by tea, coffee or juice.

The ladies outdid themselves, serving up the repast on real china, each of the small tables decorated with carnations, and waiting was kept to a minimum, as service was prompt and gracious.

Visiting with friends and neighbors was so fascination that customers were reluctant to leave their tables...and all those mothers, as well as some fathers, were charming in their Sunday best.

The Tea Committee was under the supervision of Bea Williams, with assistance from Anne Buck, Anita Balas, Helga Vaughan, Pearl Slywka and John Williams, while Lily Sass took tickets on a small draw, which proved not so small, and took in $50 for the club. The picture drawn for was won by Phyllis Zarowny, the handmade potholders going to Rose Drobot.

Altogether, an enjoyable couple of hours were spent by the customers, quite a few more hours devoted by the committee, all going to prove that the seniors are well able to provide a pleasant diversion for themselves from time to time. We'll be watching for Father's Day!

In Our View

Tourists welcome

National Tourism Awareness Week has been declared nationwide to remind all Canadians of the economic, social and cultural benefits of tourism. This gives us an opportunity to pay tribute to an industry which benefits every community in Alberta on a year-round basis.

Tourism is Alberta's third-largest industry, right behind agriculture and energy, and generates $ 2.4 billion yearly, providing a unique diversification opportunity for communities across the province. Almost every business in a community can benefit from increasing the number of visits by tourists to that area, and increased business means increased prosperity for the community as a whole.

How do you increase the number of tourists who come to your community? A friendly smile and courteous service will go far to make sure that customers come back again, and that they will tell their friends that your business is a good place to stop when they come to your town. Providing the services and goods that tourists require is also helpful, as is letting tourists passing through your area and on routes leading to your area know what you have to offer, by way of brochures and other promotional material.

Once you get the tourists to your community, it is important to try to make their visit so pleasant that they will want to stay longer. A friendly, hospitable town that is proud to tell tourists about the fine camping, fishing and sight-seeing opportunities in the area is one which will keep tourists around, spending money in its local businesses, longer. Something as simple as letting the tourists know that there is a bingo in town that night might sway their decision to stay there, rather than to travel another fifty miles and spend money in that town instead.

And of course, you want them to come back again. If they have enjoyed their stay, and found the community friendly, they may well venture that way again, and possibly stay longer to see more of the surrounding area.

Tourism is big business, and it's one in which many of us play the vital part of meeting the out-of-towners, and serving their needs in some way. Let's all make sure we do this in a pleasant and helpful manner, which will portray our community as a great place to visit.

And remember to smile--YOU are a tourist attraction!

A Pair Of Mothers--

--Doing what mothers do best.

Mothers day in retrospect

By Irene Magnusson

So "that day" has come and gone. Either you are a grateful mother, who has received the adulation lavishly bestowed by your offspring, or you are an offspring, who has offered the homage demanded by the day--and gratefully received by the mother. There's another lot of us, we who may fall into the first category, but are unable to honor our mothers, since they are no longer with us on our planet.

I am among the latter. My mother was available to me for 69 years, sometimes ignored, sometimes irritating, but always loved and honored, still today sadly missed.

On the other hand, from my children I have received the visits, phone calls and gifts and cards and flowers, all the 'honors' society demands be shown. I don't think it is all 'for show.' Way down, I think they mean it all, just as I did to my own mother. I accept the symbols humbly and as graciously as my nature permits. To be loved is good.

"Mother" is spoken in many ways. In our own Canadian language we hear Mom, Momma, Mum, Mummy, Mama, Mommy, Mums, (rotten kids--Old Lady), the Mater, Mere, Mutter, Madre, Moder, Muter, and probably a few others.

The sound of the word, Mother, is almost universal, and probably comes ready-made from a baby's mouth; certainly the "mum, mum, mum" tun. is well known to any mother, occasionally preceded by the "da, da, da" sound, long before any meaningful words are attempted.

My Word Finder tells me the 'Mother' word was mater, in Latin, well over two thousand years ago. In Greek, it is meter, while the Sanskrit word is matr-. (The hyphen means that the word-ending, if any, is unknown). Word-wizards trace the use of the word 'mother' to its present English-language sound to something like six or seven thousand years, perhaps much longer (or forever). So let's face it--once a mother, always a mother.

"Mother" also means to tenderly care for, to tend, nurture, protect; also to bear, give birth to, produce, beget, conceive; while motherly attitudes are kind, sheltering, gentle, protective, devoted. Mothers are fairly desirable creatures to have around--especially on a dark and stormy night.

Now to delve into this thing called Mothers Day: how come, when and why? My searching has disclosed that the whole thing started back in 1905, when a certain lady, by name Anna Jarvis, in far-off Grafton, West Virginia, fell prey to a long depressive fit of anguish following her mother's death, on May 9 of that year. For two years she was guilt-ridden, feeling she had not shown sufficient gratitude to her mother in her time. She decided to promote a day of dedication to mothers all over the country.

She caused her local church to declare a Mothers Day, which drew in 407 kids, with their mothers. At the end of the service dedicated to those moms, she gave everyone there a carnation, her mother's favorite flower.

The plan caught on like wildfire, and was picked up nation-wide. The US House of Representatives passed the proclamation right off, but one Senator got nasty about it, suggesting there might as well be a "Fathers Day" or "Mother-in-Law Day" or "Uncles Day", causing such a stink that the bill was delayed for 6 years, until President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the 2nd Sunday in May to be a National Mothers Day, in 1914.

The idea spread, and soon almost every country had Mothers Day. It has not been bad for certain businesses. In deference to mothers on Mothers Day, in America, 10 million bouquets of flowers are purchased, 150 million greeting cards are sent, more dinners-out are eaten than on any other day, with an estimated one-third of all families taking Mom out to dine on that May Sunday. We could estimate Canada's efforts to be about one-tenth of the US's--so all in all, good for someone.

The bit about the life of Anna Jarvis after all this started isn't so good: she had a broken romance, so never married, had no children; a blind sister she cared for died young. She became disillusioned with the commercial use put to "her day," and sued and lost--she had planned it to be only religiously observed. Going broke, she lost her home, had to go on welfare, and her health failed. Some friends helped her, but she lived out her life in a private sanatorium, deaf, ill, blind, childless and alone. Rather a sad ending for one who brought a great deal of happiness to others.

It seems now we have "days" for almost everyone and everything. Fathers Day, proposed only a couple of years after Mothers Day hit the news, was slow in starting, and, while observed here and there, was not officially proclaimed until 1972, 62 years after Mothers Day was launched. It has already become the 5th largest card-sending occasion, with over 85 million sent annually to deserving fathers.

Grandparents got their 'Day' in 1978, the Sunday after Labor Day, in September. The Day was urged into being by a 65 year old grandfather, who put $ 11,000 and 17 trips to Washington into the promotion. This Day puts 4 million cards into the mail boxes. Then Mother-in-Law Day, 4th Sunday in October, was proclaimed in 1981, still not official, but promoted by greeting card companies, sends 800,000 card out annually. Who sends them? The Sons-in-Law and Daughters-in-Law?

Crop report

The first crop report of the season from the local Alberta Wheat Pool elevator shows soil moisture conditions and growth prospects under current moisture conditions to be good on both summerfallow and stubble fields. Application of Treflan and Avadex was underway last week, and some seeding was already underway when the cold, rainy conditions arrived late Sunday and brought field work to a halt for a few days. No estimate has been made of the survival rate for fall seeded crops as yet.

Rain again brought seeding to a halt early this week. Seeding has been slow to start due to cold weather. Only about one percent of hard red spring wheat has been seeded.

Estimates of total acreage to be seeded show hard red spring wheat and canola up five percent each from last year's acreage, while summerfallow acreage will be down five percent. Acreages of oats and barley will stay near 1989 figures.

The regular meeting of the U. C. W. was held in the Church Hall on May 2nd. The hostesses, Edith Mitchell and Ellen Ziomek, opened the meeting with a devotion.

Acting President was Edith Mitchell. Correspondence included a letter from St. Andrew's College asking about prospective students for the ministry.

Thank you to everyone who has donated glasses and frames to this worthwhile cause.

The Church has decided to hold a Yard Sale on Friday, May 25 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.. The ladies decided to look after the lunch to be served throughout the day, and promptly made up a work schedule for the kitchen. They hope to be able to staff the Home Bake Table as well. Any articles you have, that you wish to donate to the Yard Sale can be brought to the Church Hall on Thursday, May 24. If you wish to have them picked up, please phone someone on the Finance Committee.

For the program, Edith Mitchell (who has a green thumb) showed the ladies how to transplant plants and cuttings. She then sold the plants to the ladies for a nominal fee, the money to go to Mission and Service.

Elks HockeyClub holds awards night

On May 5, the Elks Hockey Club had their awards night and barbecue. Players and their wives, sponsors and most of the people who helped the hockey club in some way were invited.

The trophies were awarded as follows:

TOP SCORER Elk Point Insurance, sponsor. The winner was Murray Cochrane. He was our top point scorer this season and this is a trophy he has won before.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR Michelle's Hair Design, sponsor. The winner is Lane Lorensen, a local boy who joined the team at Christmas. He was one of the faster skaters on the ice and we all appreciated both his forechecking and backchecking.

MOST IMPROVED PLAYER Sharkey's Bus Service, sponsor. Two trophies were awarded this year, one to Jeff Buck, who played a more disciplined game. He improved his play on the ice and became one of the team leaders. Rick Marcoux also won a duplicate trophy for his improved ability to stand in front of the net on the power play. He became an offensive threat when we played at even strength. Mr. Babe Sharkey was on hand to give out the trophies.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER Sharkey's Bus Service, sponsor. Alain Leclerc, or "Frenchy" as he is known, was one of the fastest skaters we had. He played both left wing and centre, winning many of the key faceoffs. Babe Sharkey also gave out this trophy.

BEST DEFENSEMAN E-Can Oilfield Services, sponsor. Terry Wozniak once again won this trophy. His solid bodychecking made opposing players think twice about hitting him. Terry was also one of the final 3 candidates selected for Best defenseman in the Sask-Alta League. One of the best offensive defensemen. A great achievement.

MOST DEDICATED PLAYER Canadian Salt Co., sponsor. A big grin and an enthusiastic attitude made Willie Lesyk this trophy winner. He never missed a game all year, playing hurt many times.

MOST POPULAR PLAYER Elks Hockey Club, sponsor. Kerry Loughran was presented with this trophy. Kerry was both popular with the fans and respected by his teammates.

Plaques were presented to Manager Del Smith, Coach Tim Kubista and Trainer Clyde Diesel. Plaques also went to Murray Cochrane for all his work on behalf of the team and to Angie Berg for keeping the books.

To all the players who did not receive a trophy, the management and coaching staff would like to thank you for your efforts on behalf of the team. They appreciated the discipline and dedication displayed by you. To the players who drove many miles just to get to the rink, the ones who played hurt, and the players who took casts off just to help out, we do thank you. It was appreciated. We needed all of you.

We also want to thank all the businesses and the Elks Lodge for their support. Thank you, fans, for showing your enthusiastic approval by coming out to the games. We needed you, too. We hope to see you again in the late fall when the new season begins.

Fifth Anniversary for Heritage Lodge

Five Year Residents

Mrs. Anna Bristow and Mr. Walter Krucik were the very first residents to move into Heritage Lodge when it opened its doors five years ago last week.

Pioneer Circle directors meet

By Irene Magnusson

Tuesday, May 8, marked the first regularly scheduled meeting of the newly appointed Board of Directors of the Pioneer Circle in Elk Point, although a special meeting had been called earlier, to accommodate the addition of member Phyllis Zarowny to the Board, which had not been at full strength, and the appointment of a Housekeeper, since the newly elected attendant had resigned. Rose Kozicky will take over the housekeeping duties, replacing Doris Capjack, who has held the position for a few years.

A Mother's Day Tea was planned, for Saturday, May 12. Bingos in future will charge a small amount for refreshments served, these have been offered free in the past, cutting down considerably on any profit hoped for. Volunteers to attend the Campsite Cleaning crews were called for, some received; the list needs to be drawn up for the summer months. Also a list of duties required from the Housekeeper must be rewritten, as the former list has been mislaid.

A donation of $100 was approved to be made to the Canada day Committee, for the festivities planned, as this has been done in past years. The group tentatively supports the Town of Elk Point's plans to encourage recycling materials, in addition to the present paper bins now collecting. More information is needed.

Stephen Montgomery and Tracey

Boothman, from the Community Services and Recreation, arrived. Montgomery spoke briefly on plans afoot for Seniors' Week, to be observed in June. The theme this year, he stated, was "Seniors As A Resource" in the community, and invited members of the Pioneer Circle to participate, with some to serve on the planning committee. Members volunteering to help were: Violet McFadyen, Iryne Buck, Lily Palinka, Wayne Palmer and Irene Magnusson. They will meet with Montgomery and Boothman in the coming weeks. Anyone with ideas for this event could contact any of these persons. It was suggested that the program will be held in the Pioneer Circle Drop-In Centre on June 9.

Phyllis Zarowny, in charge of the Monday night Bingos, reported results of $1862, since the March 12 report. Also, that sale of lunch has brought $25 for one evening, a good return.

Following other business, Irene Magnusson spoke briefly on the activities of Alberta Council on Aging (ACA) in the Region, and Area 1, (Elk Point and east to the border). A Fall Conference in Elk Point is planned for September 11, 1990. Support and membership are needed, also ideas.

The June 12 meeting will be the last regular meeting until fall. Adjournment followed, with coffee and socializing.

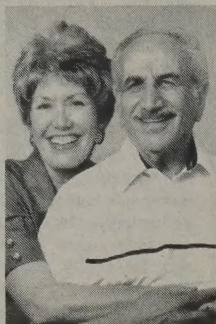

Celebrating Five Years

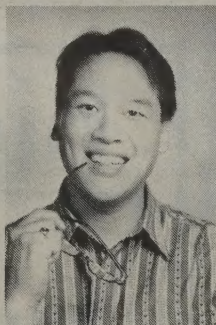

The residents of Heritage Lodge celebrated the fifth anniversary of their residence last week with a coffee party in the dining room.

"You can start with as little as $100."

Bend And Stretch

Exercise sessions instructed by Teresa McCuaig (left foreground) kept seniors supple all winter, and were much enjoyed by the group of ladies.

Fun and fitness ends for summer

By Irene Magnusson

The Fun and Fitness Program for seniors, sponsored by Further Education in Elk Point, has wound the course down for the summer, with a final day spent in St. Paul at the bowling alley, where three strenuous games reminded the group where their muscles were.

Eight members of the class, which sometimes showed as many as twelve at the weekly sessions all winter, drove to St. Paul, where the few who had never bowled before were initiated. Balls rolled in many unlikely places, but some found their mark, and the high scorers were Teresa and Rose. After the games, the group lunched at Smitty's, while outside the snow fell—after all, it was only the 7th of May.

Clearly, those who take part in this exercise class, conducted by Teresa McCuaig, who took her training under Red Cross directions, benefited by it. Especially designed to assist the older person, the exercises are not such as to cause harm, but rather build up and keep supple those muscles which tend to atrophy when not put to use.

A weekly workout of an hour's length may not seem much, but we are urged to keep active other days as well, and the few minutes per session set aside for brain-teasers are not wasted time either, for we need to keep our wits sharp, too, as well as our muscles.

The exercise has paid off in other ways, too. One of our number, Olga Tomkow, was able to partake in the "Walk For Sight" program, sending herself over a 10 km jaunt, not at all a poor showing for a senior—in fact one she may be quite proud of. Next fall, why not give it a try? And remember, it's not just for women; men need useful exercise, too.

What's news at the library?

Two classes of playschool children visited the library this past week. After a tour of the library, the children watched the video "I'm No Fool As A Pedestrian" introduced by Jimmy Cricket with Pinocchio and Geppetto. The children learned, in an entertaining manner, the rules which must be followed to be safe when walking. After a story about books was read to the children, the highlight of the visit was introduced. "Go Away Dog" and "The Lion and the Mouse" were performed in the puppet theatre to the delight of all present.

NEW BOOKS:

In previous Bourne novels, Robert Ludlum has put his violent hero with the morals of a saint through a variety of hells. Suffering from amnesia, Jason tracked the Jackal through Europe (The Bourne Identity). Later he found himself pitted against a Chinese cartel set on destabilizing the Far East (The Bourne Supremacy). And now, in The Bourne Ultimatum, Jason is fifty years of age; he could not do with ease what he did thirteen years ago in Paris. But evil in the form of corrupt officials and unscrupulous murderers, must be tracked down and stamped out. And we are there, biting our nails and cheering him on as he drugs the attack dogs, spares the innocent guards and races from Washington to Paris to Moscow and beyond. He and Robert Ludlum do not let us down in this adventurous story of intrigue and danger.

Passing Glory by Reay Tannahill-
An old-fashioned family saga about the passions and scandals that shake a British dynasty.

Louisa Elliott by Ann Victoria Roberts-A rich, romantic story set in 19th century England of a woman torn by two loves.

Challenging The Skies: Horizons

Around The World-this is a story of a family of non-professional pilots and the lessons they have learned about flying. A 26,000 mile excitement-filled circumnavigation of the globe in a Piper Twin Comanche.

Deadly Combination

Have you a high flyer in your family?

If so, a blue sky and a breezy day are all that a youngster with a kite or model airplane needs to take off.

But wait. Power lines and kites are a deadly combination.

Before your children test the wind, tell them to fly their kites or airplanes only in wide open spaces, far away from overhead power lines. And if the toy gets caught in or near a power line, leave it there. Don't try to get it down.

Keep your flying ace safe.

When it comes to electrical safety - don't take chances.

Final paving

EDMONTON: Alberta Transportation and Utilities will call for tenders for a major highway improvement project east of Elk Point.

The project, announced May 8 by Alberta Transportation and Utilities Minister Al "Boomer" Adair and St. Paul M. L. A. John Drobot, will involve a total of 20.1 kilometres of final paving on Secondary Highways 897 and 646.

Mr. Adair said, "This work is being done as part of the Government of Alberta's program to pave all secondary highways in the province by the year 2000."

Mr. Drobot commented, "The work on Secondary Highway 646 will be done from the junction with Secondary Highway 893 (Heinsburg) east to the junction with Secondary Highway 897, and from that intersection approximately 10.2 kilometres south on Secondary Highway 897 to the North Saskatchewan River crossing. The final paving work will bring those highways up to their full design strength to support the heavy traffic of the petroleum industry in that area."

All construction work is scheduled to be completed this fall.

Expect fall calf prices like last year's

Similar prices to 1989's are expected for fall yearlings and calves in Alberta cattle markets, says an Alberta Agriculture livestock analyst.

Likely trading ranges for September-October are between $90 and $95/cwt. for 800 to 900 lb. steers, $95 and $105 for 600 to 700 lb. steers, says Ron Gietz in his quarterly cattle situation and outlook. "Stren and :105 and :115 for 500 to 600 lb steersgth in the U.S. market quarterly cattle situations and outlook. Strength in the U.S. market should provide support to our prices and continue to draw feeders south," he says. ne gradually in May and June and bottom in July around $72/cwt. for U.S. direct sale steers, he says. "Price improvement from these levels is likely to be very gradual, particularly if cattle are held back in feedlots," he says. He adds, by October U.S. fed cattle prices could return to the mid to upper $70 range.

The Alberta direct sale steer trade is predicted to average between $79 and $83/cwt. in the second and third quarters and between $82 and $86 in the final quarter of 1990. Prices forecast for the fed cattle market are based on a gradually declining Canadian dollar, reaching the 84 cent U.S. level by December, Gietz adds.

He also says breeding stock prices are expected to continue a trend of lower prices in 1990. "Expansion of the provincial beef herd appear to have moderated and the profitability of cow-calf operations has generally declined in the past two years, translating into reduced demand for replacement stock."

Gietz says the Canadian cattle industry is undergoing a period of major restructuring. "If you look at Canadian fed cattle slaughter statistics for the first three months of 1990, production looks static compared to last year. Closer inspection shows major restructuring."

Fed cattle, both steer and heifer, slaughter in Alberta was up 18 per cent over the year-ago quarter. "This is an exceptional rate of growth in the cattle feeding industry, not equalled in the province since the first quarter of 1964," he says. "The current period of growth in Alberta's feedlot sector is similar in magnitude to the initial expansion of the industry in the early 1960's"

Balancing the increase in the fed cattle slaughter and export in Western Canada, was a 19 per cent slump in fed cattle slaughter in Eastern Canada.

To all horse lovers

By Joe Brunner

Do you want to spend more time with your horses this summer? Go on an occasional trail ride? Have you ever wanted to follow a wagon train for a few days?

We, the members of the Elk Point and District Horse Club, believe we can help you obtain these goals. We give you an invitation to join with us for some thrilling and rewarding summer activities centered around travel by real "horsepower".

We are ordinary folk, young and old, from many walks of life, desirous that everyone has a good and memorable time, and are ready to give each other a helping hand when it is needed.

We enjoy the great outdoors and always make new friends. The horse activities are close to nature and we get an opportunity to soak up the brilliant rays of sunshine, also an occasional and unwelcome bath by the rain showers, which we cannot completely avoid.

We get a first hand view of what our forefathers experienced when the horse was King of the Road, transporting a rider to the Post Office, to the jobsite, to a neighbour's place for a visit, or to court a girl.

We experience the slow pace by the homesteaders as they journeyed across provinces, as they transported building supplies, grain, coal, groceries, passengers, and school children by horse-drawn wagon, buggy, or cart, and doing the heavy field work that is now done by tractors.

We appreciate the horse and want to spend some time with this majestic, proud, and impressive friend of man as it carries us across the countryside.

How thrilling to join with friends at the close of the day, satisfying our ravenous appetites, and reminiscing about the day's adventures.

We have found that trail riding and wagon training are addictive.

Here are three events our horse club has scheduled for this summer:

1) June 3rd. A trail ride in the Myrnam area. This takes the form of a poker rally and participants have a chance to win a prize. The ride is followed by a supper.

2) June 16th. Combined driving demonstration and trail ride in the Elk Point area.

3) July 30th to August 3rd. A wagon train from Elk Point to Muriel Lake and return. We travel out for two days, have a one-day-layover to rest our horses and our weary bones, then a two-day return. We end our trail at a hall where we have a community supper followed by the giving out of some trophies. This is followed by an evening of entertainment as we listen to an old time band and some may even want to kick up their heels in dance.

Accept this as an invitation to join with us for one or more of our events which are horse-related. The cost is very minimal and the rewards are great.
